

LEADERSHIP, CRISIS, AND THE Future of Policing

HOW TO REIMAGINE POLICING FOR TODAY'S CHALLENGES

Jeff Wenninger, a nationally recognized law enforcement expert and retired LAPD Lieutenant, knows firsthand that policing is at a critical turning point. With over 30 years of frontline experience leading specialized units in confronting gang crime, crowd management, active shooter response, dignitary protection, school safety, and overseeing more than 700 use of force cases, Jeff has earned his insight into what it takes to build safety and trust in communities.

His urgent call to action: THE TIME TO REIMAGINE POLICING IS NOW.

As Founder and CEO of Law Enforcement Consultants, LLC, Jeff fosters essential conversations about transparency, community collaboration, and public confidence in law enforcement. His distinguished career includes elite tactical operations, collaboration with the Secret Service, and honors including the prestigious LAPD Medal of Valor.

In his upcoming book, On Thin Ice, Jeff confronts tough questions holding law enforcement back and shares proven strategies for meaningful change. With honesty and urgency, Jeff challenges police leaders, policymakers, and community members to have the difficult conversations necessary to transform policing for today's challenges before trust breaks down completely.

Reimagine WHAT Policing Should Be.

What Your Audiences Will Learn

The Future of Policing

Moving beyond rigid "reform" mandates to real, lasting solutions that restore public trust and improve outcomes.

Use of Force & The Policy-Practice Divide

Bridging the gap between policy, training, and real-world application to ensure consistency and accountability.

Crisis Leadership & Public Scrutiny

Lessons from high-stakes incidents on maintaining trust, transparency, and decisive leadership in critical moments.

Defunding the Police & The "Reform" Debate

Why these approaches often miss the mark—and what meaningful transformation actually looks like.

Rethinking Crisis Readiness

How agencies can strengthen coordination, preparedness, and decision-making in today's complex policing landscape.

The Warrior vs. Guardian Debate

Why effective policing isn't about choosing one philosophy over the other, but integrating the best of both.

Key Discussion Topics

Why "defunding the police" was never the answer—and what we should do instead.

Why the term "police reform" often does more harm than good.

How to rethink crisis readiness and coordination in the 21st Century.

How law enforcement leaders can navigate public scrutiny after critical incidents.

How leaders can improve officer education, hiring, and training practices using empirical evidence-based strategies to close the "policy-practice divide."

Moving beyond the "warrior vs. guardian" debate—why the future of policing isn't about choosing one or the other.

Policing changes when we rethink who leads, how officers are trained and the culture they operate in.
